

Collect 2024

Workhouse Wonderland

Curiouser and curiouser! Sponsors don't have to wait for the raffle drawings. Every sponsor will choose a piece of art before the event begins, until selected works are off-limits to the raffle. If you want this fantastic advantage, consider a sponsorship. Lots of levels to choose from, and all of them support the Workhouse!

The Queen of Hearts--$5,000 (One available - SOLD)

Reserve the right to shout "Off with her head!" when you take the top sponsorship spot. No one will pay attention (no one paid attention to Alice's queen either), but you will get the right to be first to skip the raffle and arrogantly select one piece of art from the Collect display, which will then be removed from the auction and reserved for you to take home. This sponsorship includes admission for 6 people (including 2 drink tickets and 5 raffle tickets per person), and top billing on event signage.

The Caterpillar -- $4,000 (One available - SOLD)

Who needs a hookah when you can have second-best pick of your favorite art in the room! Creep and crawl your way to the front of the pack to take home your top pick. This sponsorship includes admission for 6 people (including 2 drink tickets and 5 raffle tickets per person), and second-highest billing on event signage.

The Cheshire Cat--$3,500 (three available - SOLD)

Wise, all-knowing, and ever so slightly hallucinogenic, this sponsorship spot includes the chance to choose third, fourth, or fifth from all the art on display. This sponsorship also includes admission for 6 people (including 2 drink tickets and 5 raffle tickets per person), and third-tier billing on event signage.

Tweedledum and Tweedledee--$2,500

(three available - ONLY TWO REMAINING)
Channel your inner dancing twin and get sixth, seventh, or eighth art picks at Collect, as well as admission for 6 people (including 2 drink tickets and 5 raffle tickets per person), and fourth-tier billing on event signage.

The Mad Hatter--$1,500 (three available - ONLY ONE REMAINING)

Oversized fabulous hat not provided (feel free to bring your own)—but you will get an early art pick. Whether you get ninth, tenth or eleventh pick depends on how quickly you buy your Mad Hatter sponsorship. First come, first served! You'll also get admission for 4 people (including 2 drink tickets and 5 raffle tickets per person), and fifth-tier billing on event signage.

The White Rabbit--$1,000 (six available - ONLY FIVE REMAINING)

You're late! You're late! If you'd done your sponsorship earlier, you would have gotten a higher art pick number! With sponsorship at this level, the dapper patron in you will get art pick number twelve or higher (up to seventeen). The earlier sponsorships get the lower numbers. This sponsorship level also includes admission for 4 people (including 2 drink tickets and 5 raffle tickets per person), and recognition on event signage.
