

Workhouse Corporate Membership Levels

Corporate support is important to the Workhouse's success, and, like your business, the Workhouse helps to make our community an exceptional place to live, work and visit. Businesses that support the Workhouse benefit by advancing their recognition in the region and fostering community goodwill and by using the Workhouse as a unique environment for employee enrichment and client entertainment. Tailored sponsorship packages are also available which enable you to reach targeted segments of the Workhouse's visitor base as well as your own constituencies. Join us in our efforts to enrich the community through the arts and become a corporate cultural arts supporter today!
